

In Memory Board

A display board will be provided on the evening at The Countryman Inn where photographs can be placed in memory of loved ones who served in the war.

Please bring photographs with you on the evening to add to the board should you wish to.