An updated draft document was provided for the group on the table and presented on screen.

It was noted that the Church Group, as mainly external to the Parish, will be considered and responded to separately.

Steve Beresford-Foster went through the document and policies.

Some general housekeeping had been completed on the document following consultee responses and Steve reported proposals for additions and potential changes to the Plan to the group for consideration with amendments made to the document.

The final section will be presented at the Steering Group Meeting next week on 30th January along with an update and review on changes made getting ready for the final submission draft plan.

The proposed submission to Cornwall Council will be ahead of Easter.

23/23/01/NP/05 To receive and consider the consultation feedback and formulate any responses to be made.

Dealt with at item 4.

23/23/01/NP/06 To receive and consider the consultation feedback and consider any amendments to be made to the Neighbourhood Plan.

Dealt with at item 4.

23/23/01/NP/07 Any other business.

The Clerk reported that the Incentive Voucher winners had been contacted and vouchers sent. Once Data Sheets had been signed and received, winners' names can then be included in any future promotional posts.

Next meeting 30th January 7pm

Cllr Moyle requested that tonight's document be sent to those absent for their information ahead of next week's meeting.
